A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday, Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life." Mr. D. I. Whitson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters. This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c and $1 at Hodgkinson & Co's."

A Defense of the Pacer.

I notice that after all the abuse and neglect of the poor old pacer he has still an enemy left, but it seems he is coming to the front with it all.

I see that General B. F. Treacy of Lexington, Ky., tries to kill him at one fell blow. He claims that the pacer is good for nothing except for a gambling instrument. At one time I, too, was down on the pacer, but after living in a county several years where a great many of them were raised, and having had an opportunity to know what they are, I have been converted in his favor. The pacers we have in this county are decidedly the best horses we have for work of all kinds. In the first place he is the most reliable, no trouble to break and handle, good size, good looking, with plenty of stamina, and more action than any other horse we have. He has plenty of knee and stifle action, and can go any gait you want him to go, whether on the road, in harness, or under saddle. If in harness he likes to trot. Of course there are exceptions, and some will not trot at all. But in this county almost all pacers trot naturally, and show as much speed without weights or boots as trotting-bred horses, and can go just as far, having equally as good blood in him as the trotter, if not better. He can be bred very closely to the thoroughbred and still retain his level head and all the action needed. Put the pacer to the plow or machine and he walks off without any foolishness, and does his work well, and when you hook him to dray, wagon or omnibus he will pull every time. For ladies to ride or drive he is the safest horse in the world. Will go any gait you desire under saddle; will canter equal to the thoroughbred, and when crops are laid by, if you like you can handle him in thirty days either in trot or pace, and take him to the fair or on the road and beat some of the boys who have been training their high-priced trotter all the year. But still the pacer is no good because he paces when called upon to do so. When it comes to racing he does his part well, and the best proof of it is that the people all want to know the day the pacers are to go, and that is the day associations have the largest attendance and most exciting racing.

B. F. Treacy also thinks every stallion should have a black mark for every pacer sired. I differ with him. It would not look well to see so many of our best horses, which stand at the head of the class, have black marks. I do not think it would be right to give George Wilkes, after all he has done for us (now dead and gone), a black mark because his best son, Harry Wilkes, jogs in a pace. Mr. Van Ness, his trainer, told me last year that he could pace fast, and thought that if he was handled in a pace he could go faster than in a trot. The most important part of the pacer is, when his daughters are crossed on our best trotting stallions, the produce seldom fails to go fast, and does not take more than half as long to develop them so bred, and half the money saved in handling a trotter is a big thing.

I like the pacer as a pacer, and I like him crossed on our trotters and thoroughbreds, and believe when the trotter goes his mile in two minutes the poor old pacer will have at least a finger in the pie.—[E. F. Geers, in Chicago Horseman.]

Fryer's Abietene Ointment—Made from the Gum of the Abietene Tree, or "Pinus Sabina," is guaranteed for Piles, Salt Rheum, Catarrh, Burns, Old Sores, etc. Price, 25 cents. Sold by W. Pinniger. All genuine Abietene preparations bear the facsimile signature of Dr. F. Fryer.

INFANTILE SKIN DISEASES

Our oldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old was attacked with a violent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it; but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malodorous. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally, we were advised to try the CUTICURA REMEDY. The effect was simply marvelous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion your valuable remedy saved his life, and to-day he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred.

Geo. B. Smith, Attorney at Law and Ex-Proc. Atty., Ashland, O. Resident: J. G. Wells, Druggist, Ashland, O.

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN

Are born into the world every day with some scumous affection, such as milk crust, eczema, or dermatitis, and, unless developed into an agonizing eczema, the itching, burning, and disfigurement of which make life a prolonged torture unless properly treated.

A warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, and a single application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Healer, will cure the eruption, and save the child from a life of suffering. The New Blood Purifier, are often sufficient to arrest the progress of the disease, and point to a speedy and permanent cure.

Hence, no mother who loves her children, who takes pride in their beauty, purity, and health, and in bestowing upon them a child's greatest inheritance—a skin without a blemish—should neglect to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 50c; SOAP, 25c; RESOLVENT, $1. Prepared by the PUTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

FRIDAY, MARCH 23, 1888

The papers of the State, several months ago found fault with the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home for closing down the mechanical department of that institution. The criticisms were sharp with censure, and from the general comments all seemed to assert that the Board were not true to their trust in ignoring the practical education of these wards of the State. The goodings of the press were such that made the Secretary of the Board come out officially in a lengthy earl, assuring the taxpayers of the State that great injustice had been done them. This apparently was authorized by the Board. As evidence that their action had been misconstrued, the statement was made that a fund had been set apart by the Board as early as April last to add to the workings of the mechanical department, and that it was far from their purpose to permit the investment of the munificent gift of Senator Sharon to apparently be a monument of what might be construed as the folly of the former Board. This card was issued in August last, yet the doors of that branch of the Orphans' home are closed. It is understood that the Secretary of the Board, Superintendent of Public Instruction W. C. Dovey, is an advocate of manual training. He is certainly a friend to advanced ideas of education. His official work has been of a character that it would appear like injustice to lay at his door the wrong that is being done the unfortunate ones who have been bereft of parents and homes, and home influences, by robbing them of the practical education which will give these youths a bent of mind that will induce them to take hold with intelligent and trained hands, and thus grapple for the necessities of life.

If the Superintendent of Public Instruction is handicapped in his efforts in advancing the humane work commenced in that institution, it must be by the Surveyor-General, J. E. Jones and the State Treasurer, George Tufts, who are the other two members of the Board. Relying on the spirit of the card to which the name of the Secretary was officially attached, the press and citizens of the State were authorized to believe that the good work would soon be commenced. Thus far, as advised, nothing has been done. It is due the officials and all who are interested in the elevation of those supported by the State, to know the cause of this inaction and to know who is responsible for it. Who will rise and explain?

If you are thoroughly in earnest and wish to make your town grow and prosper, a few suggestions for your assistance and encouragement may not be out of place. First—back up every enterprise that is undertaken; stand on the street corners and criticize any man who ventures to do anything for his own or the public benefit; discuss the defects in his personal character; tell about the faults of his childhood; dig up any scandals which might have been current about his grandfather; if, perchance, he has a weakness make the most of it; plant the seeds of ridicule and distrust in the mind of any one who may be inclined to assist him; be certain to warn strangers against him, and load him with every obstacle possible, so that he may be able to demonstrate the strength of his character and his powers of accomplishment. It must not be forgotten, in this connection, that the locomotive is largely dependent for its traction power upon the weight above the wheels.

If it is a newspaper that leaves the beaten track and attempts to be enterprising, that is a legitimate target for criticism. It lives constantly under the public eye. Its defects are apparent to everybody. No matter if it does two-thirds of its work without compensation, it only demonstrates more certainly the weakness of its management. Be sure to frown on the editor when he comes around. Belittle his efforts; make him recognize your superiority. Show him so that he cannot be mistaken that your judgment is never at fault. It will save you from solicitations for your hard-earned cash. Don't pay him a cent. He works better under the stimulus of necessity. New England owes its wonderful development and wealth to the necessity which compelled her forefathers to "make their own way" on that "sterile and unproductive coast." If you feel compelled to pay five cents for a copy of his paper for your own reading, don't let him know it. It might make him proud. Be sure to destroy the paper as soon as it is read. Don't let its pernicious influence be widened by giving any body else a chance to read it.

If you will bear these suggestions in mind and act upon them consistently and persistently, you will see your city grow and prosper. Strangers will swarm upon the streets. They will scatter their money broad-cast. Their investments will increase the value of yours and you will grow fat, happy and—selfish.—El Paso Tribune.

The F. Herd Smet and Deadwood Mining Companies are not to be consolidated as reported.

During the late run at the Grand Prize mill at Tuscarora bullion valued at $70,252 was produced.

At the Clayton smelter, Idaho, coke costs $30 per ton. Half coke and half charcoal are used. Clayton is in Custer county.

Residents of Taylor, White Pine county, purpose forming a Co-operative mine company to develop the mines in that district.

More gouging is going on around the Lyon county camps than ever before, and some very rich pockets are occasionally struck.

The Rescue mine at Silverado, Eureka county, is again looking very well. The lessees have considerable very rich ore in sight.

The lessees of the Gads and Bertrand mine, at Secret Canyon, Eureka county, have cut between 600 and 700 tons of ore ready for shipment.

The mines around Ione, Nye county, are said to have never looked better than at present. The miners are taking out ore of high grade and plenty of it.

EYE VIEWS.

Important Interviews with Prominent Citizens.

The annexed is from the Virginia Enterprise of March 4th:

"I have been using glasses just about six months," said W. E. F. Deal, one of the leading lawyers of this State, "and it has cost me $50. It seemed impossible to suit me. I could always see better without them, and at the same time I felt that my eyes needed help. I went to see Dr. S. Harmon, and by means of certain mechanical appliances he readily convinced me that he had just what I needed, and here they are." Mr. Deal exhibited a pair of gold-mounted pebble eye-glasses.

The case of Col. E. D. Boyle, Superintendent of the Alta mine, is scarcely less strange. "I have used glasses for some years," said Mr. Boyle, "but for some reason—no more strange to explain or make clear—they have always made me feel like a fish out of its element, and my eyesight has been influenced by the glasses I have worn; but here is a pair which I bought from Dr. S. Harmon. They are to my eyes like juicy steak to a natural tooth compared with a false set. If you catch on to my meaning at all you know everything I mean."

Dr. S. Harmon offers his good name and immense practice as a guarantee of satisfaction in all cases.

Investigating a Death.

Friends of C. A. Brant, the prospector who died suddenly at American Flat last summer, are in Virginia, inquiring into the circumstances of his death. They say that deceased was possessed of a considerable sum of money at the time of his death, and as no money was found among his effects there is suspicion that there may have been foul play.

WAIFS FROM WASHINGTON.

Important Business Transacted in Both Houses.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The Senate Committee to examine into the present condition of the Civil Service, was organized this morning and the sub-committee was authorized to go to Philadelphia next week to examine witnesses.

The Committee on Ways and Means to-day formally directed a favorable report for the Mills Tariff bill. The bill was amended this morning at the instance of the Democratic members, as follows: 25 per cent. duty on tarloans, mulls and crinolines, changed to the present duty of 40 per cent.; the duty on putty was fixed at one cent per pound; whitening and Paris white were stricken from the free list and the duty fixed at 20 per cent. ad valorem; linseed was removed from the free list and the duty fixed at 10 cents per gallon; fire brick was also excepted from the free list. The committee adjourned subject to the call of the Chairman. The present understanding is that the bill will be reported to the House to-morrow.

The following bills were passed in the House: Amending the Statutes so as to provide that the record of the State Court may be certified by the presiding magistrate or any other Judge of the Court, extending the protection of the United States law over United States officials; executed processes in the Indian Territory.

Senator Dawes, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, reported adversely the bill authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to permit miners and corporations organized for mining purposes to prospect, develop, lease and own mineral land in any portion of any Indian reservation upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed by the Secretary of the Interior and the Indians on the reservation. The bill was opposed by the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and the former, in a letter to the committee, says that the enactment of such a law would make it extremely difficult for the Government to preserve the peace and quiet among Indians.

Hale presented from the Conference Committee a report on the Urgency deficiency bill. After the report was read, Dawes criticised the action of the Conference Committee in striking out of the bill the item to pay the attorney at Los Angeles, Cal., compensation for his services in defending successfully the interests of the Mission Indians, and the position taken by the Attorney-General. He did not blame the Senate conferees, for he knew that they had to submit to the pressure on the part of the House conferees.

STILL ANOTHER BLIZZARD. A Great Drop in Temperature in the Northern States.

CHICAGO, March 23.—Dispatches from various points in the Northwest report a drop in the temperature yesterday from thirty to forty degrees, accompanied nearly everywhere by high winds and light snow. Fears are expressed that winter wheat will be seriously injured. In this city the mercury has dropped thirty-eight degrees since yesterday morning, touching zero at daybreak to-day. In Minnesota and Dakota the thermometer registered yesterday from six to twenty degrees below zero.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 23.—Reports from the interior of the State indicate that last night's blizzard was very severe. The thermometer ranged between 10 and 12 degrees below zero. Not a wheel is moving on the Upper Michigan Peninsula roads, except those propelling snowplows, which are nearly useless. It is the most complete blockade of the winter in that section. The storm came so suddenly and fiercely that trains were unable to reach the next station. The wind was a hurricane, and was intensely cold.

Callum is Willing. WASHINGTON, March 23.—Senator Callum is out with the following statement: "I do not expect to be nominated for President either this year of our Lord 1888, or any other, but I am nevertheless just as grateful to my friends for their kindly notices as if I were an active candidate with great anticipations of success. I do not disguise the fact that if the nomination should come to me unsought—on the supposition that I was the strongest man, and in the belief that I would make a good President—I would appreciate it most highly, and accept with thanks, make the best fight I could afterwards, and, if elected, in the language of Harrison of Chicago 'try to make a model President.'"

The Sharon Case in the East. WASHINGTON, March 23.—It is said that the fight over Sharon's money will soon be transferred to this city. Frank Newlands is here, and as Sharon owned much real estate here that has been sold since the litigation began, it is believed he has induced some of the purchasers to bring suit against Mrs. Terry to quiet the title, or show cause why the cloud on the title should not be removed. It is supposed that her answer will be that she is the wife of Sharon, and the decree of the United States Circuit Court of California pronouncing the contract a forgery will be produced. It is thought some advantage can be gained by bringing the action here.

Thousands of Dollars Are spent every year by the people of this State for worthless medicines for the cure of throat and lung diseases, when we know that if they would only invest $1 in Santa Able, the new California discovery for consumption and kindred complaints, they would in this pleasant remedy find relief. It is recommended by ministers, physicians and public speakers of the Golden State. Sold and guaranteed by Osburn & Shoemaker at $1 a bottle. Three for $2.50.

The most stubborn case of catarrh will speedily succumb to California Cat-R-Cure. Six months' treatment for $1. By mail $1.10.

admirers. "Use one going about the woods," he was now crawling over the apple. It was not the first time the adventure that took possession of twelve honored residents of the highlands in Scotland, when they gathered all their earthly treasures together and bidding good-bye to the hills of Burns, took passage on a little sailing vessel to the colonies of the New World. It was in the year 1770 that these men determined to be among the early settlers and get it before all the land in America that could be cultivated was taken up by other settlers. These men never could have dreamed of the fertile plains of the great west being of any value. Their home had been in the highlands and the thought of a farm in such a swamp as Illinois was, would not have been entertaining for moment, even if the country had been as inviting as it is to-day, and had been opened for settlement. They were to some extent disappointed when they saw how very level the country was, and how small the hills. The grand old mountains they had abandoned. But they were led by a kind Providence that ever guides its children better than they know, near what is now the town of Alton, in the state of Vermont, to a spot so small that the hills of the town were filled with joy. They saw before them a cluster of hills that had seemingly been thrown up to suit their desires. They counted over the hills and found that there were precisely twenty hills, and the family made a decision of the exact location of each was more difficult, and so, after some search, they cast lots and each one took possession of the hill that fell to his lot. Near by was a great lake, called by them the pond. The hills were of various sizes, and in places was of fabulous depth. They sounded for the bottom and a line 400 feet was drawn up with the assurance that the lead did not strike. These men carried with them their intense love of the hills, and their knowledge of the hills, and, withal, that peculiar skill of getting the best out of everything that distinguishes a true Scotchman. The inheritance that was thus chosen was so well selected that they sang with peculiar emphasis the words of the Scotch psalm that never been so appropriate before:

Constipation

Causes, directly or indirectly, fully one-half the sufferings which afflict mankind. It is usually induced by inactivity of the liver, and may be cured by the use of Ayer's Pills. C. A. Schomerus, Great Bend, Kansas, writes: "I have used Ayer's Pills for Costiveness, with the most beneficial results." J. Windholm, Newark, N. J., writes: "Ayer's Pills cured me of chronic Constipation." Martin Koch, Huntington, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered much from Biliousness

And Headache

After using one box of Ayer's Pills I was quite well." C. F. Hopkins, Nevada City, Mo., writes: "I have used Ayer's Pills, and think they are the best in the world. They have cured me of Sick Headache and Neuralgia." W. L. Page, Richmond, Va., writes: "I have been a severe sufferer from Headache. Ayer's Pills afford me speedy relief." A. J. Forster, Dauphin st., Mobile, Ala., writes: "For a number of years I have been troubled with Constipation and Headaches. After trying a number of so-called Liver Invigorators, without benefit, I was at last

Cured by Using

Ayer's Pills." Rev. Francis B. Harlowe, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "For years I was subject to Constipation, from which I suffered increasing inconvenience, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds. Some months ago, I began taking Ayer's Pills. They have entirely corrected the costive habit, and have vastly improved my general health." Hermann Bringshof, jewelry engraver, Newark, N. J., writes: "Costiveness, induced by my sedentary habits of life, at one time became chronic and exceedingly troublesome. Ayer's Pills afforded me speedy relief, and their occasional use has since kept me all right." Ed. O. Easterly, Rockford, Ill., writes that he has been cured of chronic Constipation by the use of Ayer's Pills.

NOTICE.

THE CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD Company hereby gives notice to all whom it may concern, that in the future it will vigorously prosecute all persons who may cut or cause to be cut, or remove any timber standing, growing or being upon any of its lands, and that where such trespasses are settled out of court by payment of stumpage, such stumpage shall be assessed as for punitive damages, and be fixed at a sum not less than triple the value of the trees or timber cut or removed.

The company will sell its timber lands at a fair price where it has title, and where it has not, will enter into contracts for their sale to ensure where it procures title, but it will not countenance any further depredations upon its timber, or settle for such depredations when committed upon any other basis than as here indicated.

The sheaves. The work of road building and clearing, harvesting with the sickle and flailing and the old flailing brought the people together on many occasions, where the old songs were sung, the bag-pipes played and many a one pledged eternal faith to the lass who added to her mother's grace the beauty that youth so generously confers. Vast numbers of men and women, and even farmers, but what is far better they enjoyed life and made an honest living were free from the cares and feverish excitements that belong to city and speculative life.

The Deer Range of the Northwest.

The great deer range is in Northern Wisconsin, across Minnesota to Dakota and covers the country adjacent to Brush City and Princeton and to the north of Prairien. There are very few deer on the Red Lake Reservation, and very few elsewhere. In fact, the wolves are so numerous in the counties adjacent. The wolves drive the deer out. At the extreme frontier the deer are found in good condition. They breed in the winter and remain there during the Summer, and are driven out by the wolves in October. In the winter the wolves kill a great many deer are wastefully destroyed. It is necessary to kill the wolves to keep the deer crop, and the bounty is doing some good. But the deer are not getting exterminated. You might as well talk about exterminating the ducks, cranes, geese, geese, and all kinds of waterfowl which breed up in the Peace River country, 1,500 miles northwest of Winnipeg. There are about 20,000 saddles of venison handled here a year. So sometimes this amount is exceeded, as in 1873, when the wolves first drove the deer, and drove the deer into the settlement. The deer fur is of no commercial value, but the skin is made into mocassins and into buckskins for the stores.

Small Stock Raisers in Nebraska.

The certain result of the great losses of cattle on the ranges will be the production of a large number of small stock growers in place of a few heavy ranchmen who have numbered their herds by the thousands. This effect has already been noticed throughout Nebraska during the past year. The small herds of the winter, and rapidly bestowing more attention on the care of small bunches of cattle, and finding to their great profit that corn on the hoof brings in larger financial returns than on the cob. There are scores of farmers scattered throughout Nebraska who can be traced from the weather-head of cattle from the products of their own fields where five years ago there were scarcely ten. Even the great cattle companies, learning something by experience, have found it profitable to build feeding establishments where the cattle can be protected from the weather and fattened for the market, and those who have made this wise provision against emergencies have found it very advantageous in offsetting to some extent their heavy losses on the ranch.

that the owner of the town of Reno owning a three-year-old colt, and the statement that he will go to match place with my three-year-old colt, I claim. I her by state that I will match Gibraltar two-year-old colt against his three-year-old colt, and will race him and owned in Nevada, of any age, and sum of $200 or $500 a side; and race to the place of my choice, and will race him
the coming fall time. Or I will match my colt with any colt owned in the state of Nevada, of any age, and will my opponent a sulky, mile heats, and five, six, and take place at the same time and place as the above.

Or I will match $1,000 or $1,000 on each that Gibraltar and three of his colts will race him, and will race him, and will
at the next scene fair in the fall.

Furthermore, I will bet $200 that I can beat a three-year-old colt, and will race and gain a record better than $200 in the year of 1888.
